

New Race Competitors Briefing Check List

Notes for Organisers:

The New Competitor Briefing must be conducted in a suitably quiet venue providing some degree of shelter.

A plan of the venue outlining the location of all buildings (Race Control, Secretariat – Pit Paddock Office, Competitor Relations Officers office) and detailing the dummy grid area and any other pertinent features should be prominently displayed and referred to throughout the briefing.

All competitors should have an understanding of the Flag signals, starting procedure and code of driving conduct however this briefing should serve to highlight some of these at least.

The briefing should not take longer than 15 minutes to complete.

It is mandatory to take a roll call to ensure that ALL new (novice) competitors are present.

In planning the briefing it is essential that you cover all of the following subjects.
