4. Competitor Relations Officers can assist you research your rights on these matters.
5. If your competition licence has been endorsed, you are entitled to apply for a replacement [without the endorsement being marked] immediately after the period of endorsement has concluded. Contact the MotorSport New Zealand Office for further details.

MOTORSPORT NEW ZEALAND OFFICE- PROCESSES

Event Documentation is provided to the MotorSport New Zealand office for processing after each event, this includes all fines and endorsements. All decisions are recorded and published.

If a fine is unpaid, an invoice will be generated and emailed to the competitor/entrant. As per above, this must be paid or a discussion with the office must take place within 48 hours.

Unpaid fines can lead to the suspension of your Competition/Entrants licence until fines are paid.

Endorsements and/or Suspensions are processed within the MotorSport New Zealand database which will provide automated emails to the competitor.

If you have any queries about this process, please contact the MotorSport New Zealand office.
